

A salon is a gathering of people under the roof of an inspiring host, where an exchange of ideas can take place; we can learn more about others, their aspirations, visions and actions to reach their goals.

This time our topic will be: “Taking a larger look at life”

What would it mean to observe and work with our perceived limitations more on a systemic level? What energy and potential could then be released?

Wonderful questions we look forward to exploring!

Invited guest speaker: Stephen Busby

Stephen is a public speaker and coach, a healing practitioner, visionary and seeker, mentor and mystic, writer and traveller. For many years he has sought to explore the human potential and purpose in himself and others. Stephen has an amazing and original approach to his systemic work, and a profound desire to teach and explore the importance of embodying higher consciousness. His deep feeling nature, insight, and respect to space and time beyond what we see, allow him to express and transmit, with considerable clarity, themes and topics on collective intelligence, whole-field potential, spiritual awakening etc., all with the aim of supporting other people in more manifesting and expressing their own higher potential.
